

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: January 13, 2016

Media Contact:

Donald Rolfe, Marketing Communications Manager
Association of Oncology Social Work
drolfe@aosw.org or +1-847-686-2370

AOSW ISSUES SUPPORT FOR GLOBAL MISSION TO END CANCER

Oakbrook Terrace, IL — The Association of Oncology Social Work (AOSW) issues a statement today in enthusiastic support of President Obama and Vice President Biden in their call for a global mission to end cancer.

“The call for an initiative to end to cancer in our generation is the first step of a journey that will ultimately benefit and touch the lives of every person on earth,” stated AOSW President Alison Mayer Sachs, MSW, OSW-C.

As an organization committed to addressing the social, emotional and spiritual needs of all oncology patients and their families, AOSW pledges to establish, nurture and participate in partnerships with other organizations endeavoring to develop technologies, treatments and advances in cancer care that benefit all people with cancer, their families and caregivers.

Learn more about this incredibly important goal.

Learn more and support AOSW.

About AOSW

The Association of Oncology Social Work (AOSW) is a non-profit, international, 501(c) 3 organization dedicated to the enhancement of psychosocial services to people with cancer and their families. Created in 1984 by social workers interested in oncology and by existing national cancer organizations, AOSW has more than 1,100 current members who embrace the AOSW mission to advance excellence in the psychosocial care of persons with cancer, their families, and caregivers through networking, education, advocacy, research and resource development. For more information about AOSW, visit www.aosw.org, or call +1-847-686-2233.